"Education-Defense of the State" Through the Efforts of the School Board and PTA

The PTA offers an opportunity for teachers to talk with parents as illustrated by Mr. Miller and an interested parent.

During one of the PTA meetings a group of parents and faculty members become acquainted.

In order to keep our educational system running smoothly, the school board, from left to right, Mr. Arthur Meyers; Mr. Stanley Hammer; Mr. Sid Boise; Mr. Connel C. Ward; Mr. Harry Scott; Superintendent, Mr. Charles Schmidt; Mrs. Marens Maltby; Mr. Ray Cates; and Assistant Superintendent, Dr. George Martin, meets twice a month.

A group of parents enjoy the refreshments which are served after the PTA meetings.

The Student Body Officers, Publication Heads, Advisers, and Mr. Carleton welcome you with a colorful prologue to our "school life" —the 1961 Viking.

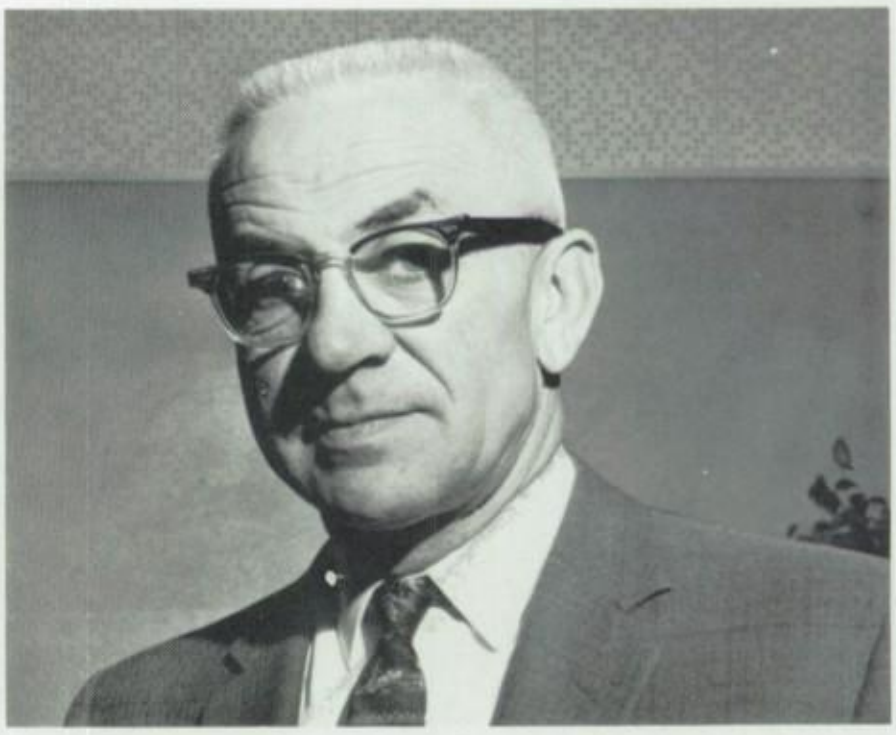
FACULTY

The teacher is likened to the limb which branches from the tree of knowledge.

Our Able Administrators...

Amiable Mr. Carleton directs one of Oregon's largest teaching staffs with the efficiency of modern industry. Here at North for his fifteenth year, Mr. Carleton continues to enjoy a high degree of popularity.

No nation or culture in the history of western civilization has greater need for leadership and direction than America. No society can endure without education to round out and fulfill a nation's mission. As you journey forth in life, you will do well to recall the statement, "Education—Defense of the State," imprinted above the main doors of our building. As you have occasion to reflect upon this remark, you will remember with satisfaction these persons who led you through your secondary education.



Prefect of discipline, Gurnee Flesher, popular vice-principal, does a tremendous job of keeping some students profitably employed. His patience and understanding have widened the path for many a trying charge. All of us were deeply saddened by the death of his lovely wife this past school year. She, as he, was a true and compassionate friend of education.

No job demands greater tact than Dean of Girls, held by June Emerson. She seems to be everywhere at once, and her ubiquity does wonders in appreciation.

As Dean of Boys, Bill Hanauska has done much to make his presence felt. Working closely with Mr. Flesher, he has found room to improve and aid the education of his charges. His cooperative spirit ranks him high with both students and teachers.

And Capable Counselors

Mrs. Fay Mort devotes her time and energies as adviser to the sophomore class.

A fine counselor of seniors, Mr. Stuart Leek, strikes a good pose.

The juniors, in need of assistance, contact Mrs. Vera Cochell, who speeds them on their way.

Mr. George Strozut serves North as the college counselor.

The counseling program has become a very large and important part of North's curriculum. This is the first year that we have had a counselor for each grade in addition to the college counselor. These counselors help make every student's problem more bearble.

BRUCE THOMPSON, Industrial Arts.

In order to promote something new this year, the Viking staff asked the members of the faculty to offer some advice that would apply to our students. This participation was voluntary, and we thank those who contributed their remarks.

Ah, Mr. Strozut, that classic Roman profile!

RUSSELL WITTMER, Music.

MARION WRIGGLESWORTH, Physical Education — "Take time to be alone part of each day, even for an hour or a few minutes for rest, relaxation, and recreation."

Secretaries Solve Anxious Problems

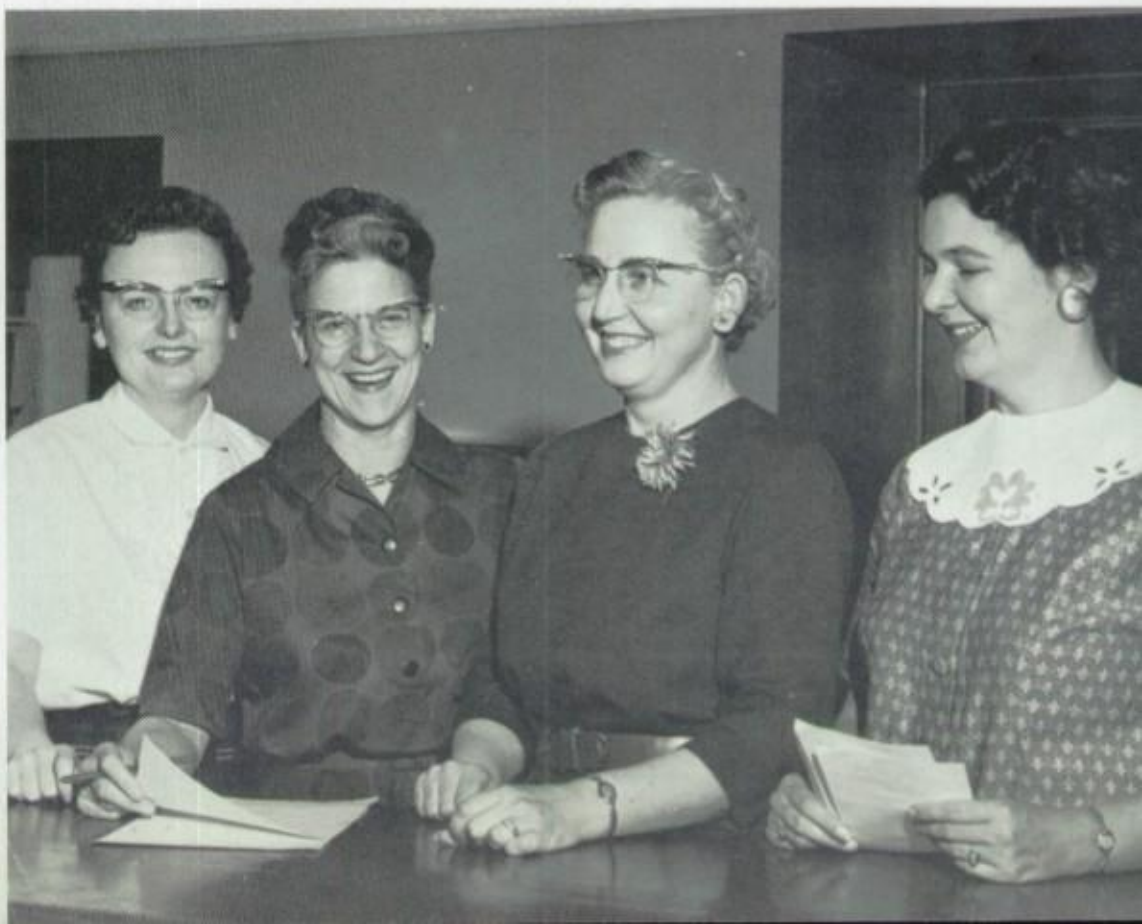
A graduate of the former Salem High, Mrs. Shuford is in charge of North Salem's attendance records.

Head problem solver, Mrs. Gilmore, who is a graduate of the University of Oregon, is the manager of the school office and secretary to Mr. Carleton.

Miss Matlock keeps both students and books in order.

The smiling secretaries await the hustle of students who come into the office every day with numerous problems to be solved.

Mrs. Brumfield, an office clerk, also serves as secretary to the school counselors.



Sophomores blossom into a spring of activity before they bear the fruit of study.

SOPHOMORES

Class Advisers

Marion Putnam, Chairman

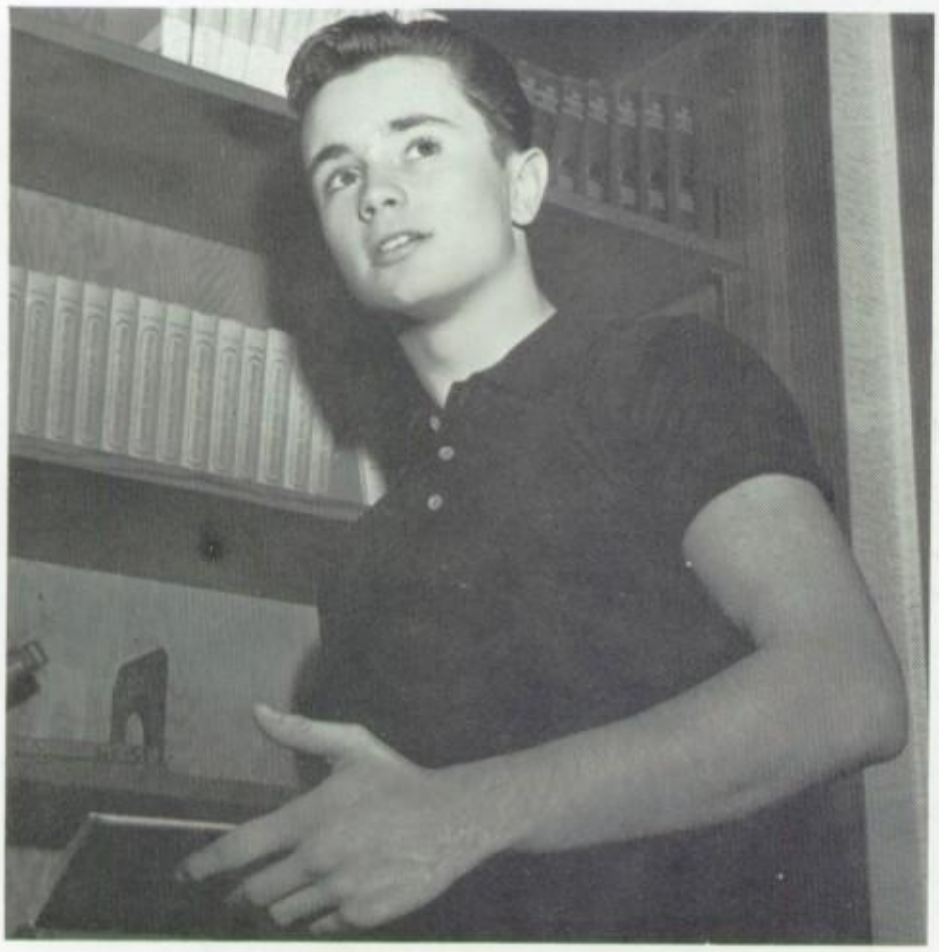
Carmen Jennison

Edward Snyder

Sophomore class treasurer, Carolyn Crothers, was as competent as her pose, here, for Viking photographers.

"Maybe this doorbell just isn't working," says Sophomore class secretary, Carolyn Dokken. Obviously, no one will answer the door.

Gain Responsibilities



Sophomore class Second Vice-President, Bob Hale, is not only a class leader, but a serious student and sports-minded athlete as well.

CLUBS

Clubs stand steadfastly against a sea of activities, yet are a long remembered symbol of high school life.

Girls Excel at This Too

Athleta's objective is to promote sportsmanship, physical efficiency, athletic accomplishment, and a love of the out-of-doors.

The annual Jym Jamboree is their main project during the year. Among their other activities, camping trips rate highly along with playdays and intramural sports for girls.

Officers for this year were Patsy Spangler, President; Carole Kruger and Elaine Standish, Vice Presidents; Gail Elliott, Secretary; and Mary Lee Harner, Treasurer. Mrs. Baker, Miss Jenkins, and Miss Wrigglesworth were the advisers.

Several of Athleta's members gather to examine a tea set.

A candid look at our outstanding feminine athletes.

Working at the Mood in Music

Music lovers, Warren Heinke and Norma Hagerman.

Many students comprise the membership of "The Modern Music Masters," North's club for students who are vocally and instrumentally talented.

During the year its members participate in assemblies and perform at community functions when they are asked. They held the annual initiation banquet this year plus one in the spring.

An evening show and an assembly were sponsored by the club to raise funds to send Norma Hagerman to Europe with the All American Band. The group toured Europe during the summer and presented many concerts.

This year's officers were Warren Heinke, President; Nita Bock, Vice President; Norma Hagerman, Secretary; Don Taylor, Treasurer; Barbara Davis, Program Chairman; Dave Staat, Membership Chairman; and Elizabeth Anderson, Historian. Howard Miller, Richard McClintic, and Russell Wittmer were co-advisers.

"What's in the box?"

Club members, Donna Atkinson, Pat McComb, Nancy Welty, John Anderson and Leonard Anderson, display interest with small French flags.

Promotion of an interest in French language, customs, life, art, and history is the objective of the French Club.

Funds for the year were earned by the sale of foreign language dictionaries at the first of the year.

They were entertained by various speakers, films, and slides during the year, and a banquet was also held.

To train efficient business leaders; develop character and prepare its members to be useful citizens, are the objectives of the Future Business Leaders of America.

During the year they attended many state and district meetings. The highlight of these meetings was in the spring when they attended their annual State Convention in Corvallis. Twelve girls participated in this event.

They busied themselves with various money-making projects. Among these were a car wash, paper drive, and, as is traditional, the selling of Christmas cards.

This year officers were: Donna Hoppe, president; Alice Workman, vice-president; Linda Stenjham, secretary; Kathy Boehm, treasurer; and Judy Angerbauer, reporter. Kay Kelsay and Ruth Hamilton were the advisers.

The FBLA officers and advisers pictured above are: Mrs. Hamilton, Donna Hoppe, Miss Kelsay, Linda Stenhjem, Kathy Boehm, Judy Angerbauer, and Alice Workman.

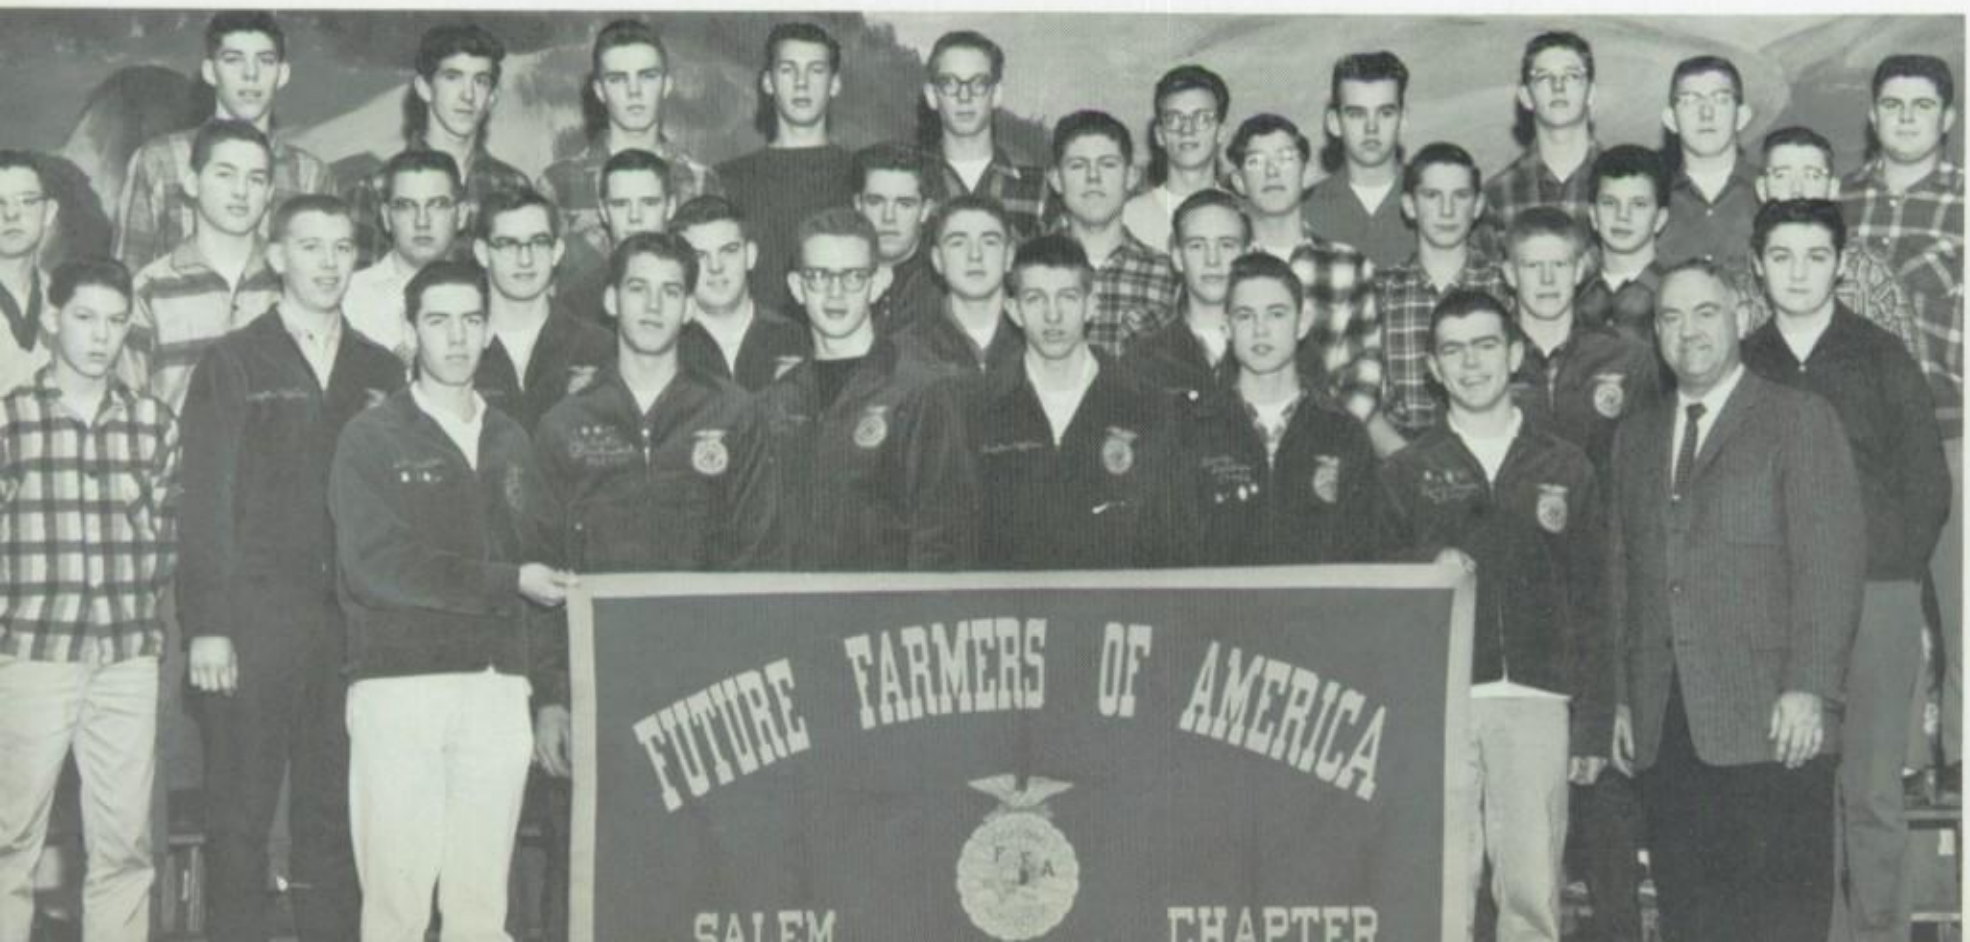
Future Farmers of America is one of the most productive clubs at North. It was organized to develop rural leadership in its members.

During the year, they had two meetings each month—a social meeting at night and a business meeting on club day. They participate in many district and state events. Their parliamentary team and livestock judging team are only two of the activities in which they take part.

This year's officers were Harold Krueger, president; Lynn Hays, vice-president; Larry Gardner, secretary; Bernie Rice, treasurer; Jeff Austin, reporter; and Neil Beutler, sentinel. Mr. McKinney is their adviser.



Disciples of Hippocrates

Under the capable supervision of Mrs. Rita Gloor, Future Medical Leaders of America has come to be one of the most popular clubs at North.

During the year they went on field trips and had many interesting and educational speakers and films.

In order to provide money for the club treasury, the club sold miniature pom-poms for the student body to use while cheering the Viks on to victory.

FMLA's officers for the year were: Gail Elliott, President; Carol Richey, Vice President; Jan Brown, Secretary; Jan Reynolds, Treasurer; and Irma Boelow, Chaplain and Sergeant-at-Arms.

"She tells a sad, sad story."

"Do you think this is too daring?"

To create a better standard of living in American homes is the main goal of the Home Economics Club. They try to attain this goal by participation in useful activities that broaden the girl's knowledge of home economics.

Among their activities are: selling mums; planning a mother-daughter tea; taking a field trip to Oregon State University to visit the Home Economics Department; furnishing "High Home," and planning a farewell picnic.

President, Jody Boies; vice-president, Carolyn Young; secretary, Kathy Pomeroy; treasurer, Mary May; and social chairman, Mary Ward worked diligently with advisers, Mrs. McFarland and Mrs. Edwards, to create a well-rounded year of activities.

"Once upon a time . . ." Verna Maynard reads to attentive Lars Hyden and John Ashton.

International Relations League is devoted to uniting interested students in study, discussion and conference for the cultivation of better understanding of international themes.

They sponsored the annual United Nations Day observance at North. An assembly was presented to the student body, featuring as guest speaker, Dr. Edwin J. Stillings of Willamette University. Members also attended the United Nations Day reception at the capitol building.

At the state conference in Eugene, North Salem's chapter represented Sweden in the model U.N. organized at the convention.

This year's officers were Steve Chambers, president; Karen Kaser, vice-president; Leslie Clayton, secretary; Anne Fisher, treasurer; and Larry Propp, historian. Miss Mary Eyre and Mr. George Strozut are the advisers.

"Veni, Vidi, Vici"

Public testimony: "It really has been fun."

A typical Latin class poring over problems.

Latin Club's main objective is to create an interest in the ancient civilization—their customs, habits, literature and government.

During the year, the club's main accomplishment was that of selling the Thesaurus. They also had a fun night with the South Salem club.

Latin Club officers for this year were: Alan Gardner, President; Barbara Todd, Vice President; Sally Plessinger, Secretary; Jackie Bair, Treasurer. Miss Jenette Joberts is their adviser.

National Honor Society is an honorary club for students who have demonstrated outstanding scholarship, leadership, character and service while at North Salem. Candidates who have maintained at least a B average are selected by other candidates, members and faculty. The tapping ceremony is usually held during an assembly, and the formal initiation banquet is held during the spring.

Members sustained the club by selling decals during football season. They also served as ushers at the annual Open House held in the fall.

Newly inducted senior members include: John Ashton, Alan Gardner, Nita Bock, Norma Hagerman, Denny Brooks, Carole Kreuger, Jan Brown, Leslie Clayton, Judy Thompson, Diane Greuel, Connie Mayers, Roberta Peterson, Mike Lossner, Charles Wardle, Verna Maynard, Judy Hall, Dave Staat, Barbara Davis, Carlie Harris, Delores Kraft, Dick Narkaus, Lynn Fairbrother, Judy Hopkins, Lars Hyden, and Gail Elliott.

The library is the favorite haunt of these industrious seniors.

Senior honor students put much thought into their choice of new members.

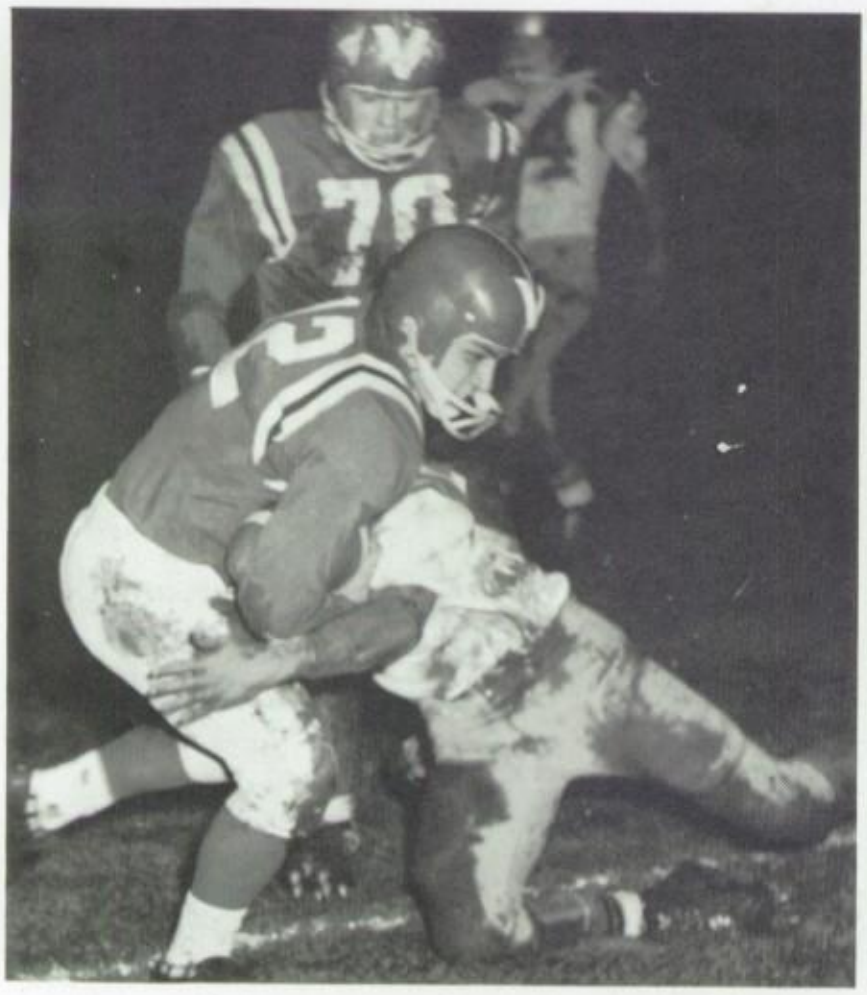
Athletic Agility and Academic Answers



A small sample of what our scholars can do.

Only senior boys who are outstanding physically and academically and who excel in leadership are eligible for membership in National Athletic Honor Society. This is an honorary club; therefore, they have no activities.

Officers for this year were Don Taylor and Robb Haskins.

Here Robb Haskins and Don Taylor, the club's only officers, pose with Mr. Eggleston, their adviser.

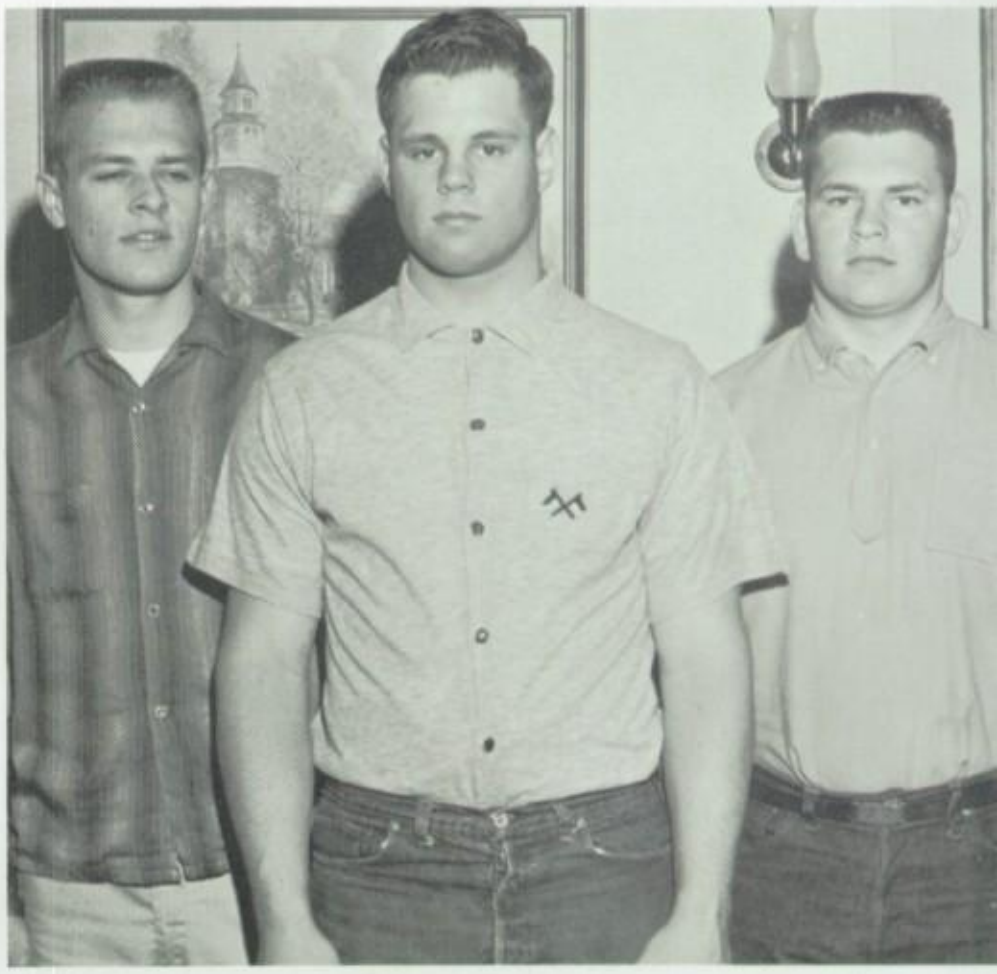
"And did you hear about . . . ."



Athletes Ray Horn, Jim Dimit and Dave Olson laugh it up during a club meeting.

"S" Club is composed of boys who have one letter in a major sport or two letters in a minor sport.

The club sells programs at North's football games each year. This year they also sold ball-point pens with each of the football player's names printed on them.

"S" Club officers this year were: Robb Haskins, President; and Don Taylor, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Eggleston is their adviser.

'Each Man in His Time Plays Many Parts'

Isn't it exciting!?!

Two plays were the result of this year's efforts—a three-act play entitled, "Time Out for Ginger," and the one-act play, "Helena's Husband," which was entered in the Pacific University drama tournament.

Besides these activities they held also a fall initiation dinner and a farewell breakfast in the spring.

This year's officers were Chuck Blewett, president; Roberta Johnson, vice-president; Nancy Lunday, secretary; and Jim Powers, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Lelia Johnson was the adviser and Mr. Glen Smith directed the plays.

Language - The Key to the World - Si?

Spanish Club members forsake idle chatter for diligent study in their Spanish class.

Phil Jarvis is conducting one of the Spanish Club meetings entirely in Spanish.

The primary motive of Spanish Club is to promote interest in Latin America, its language and its customs.

The club held an initiation in the fall and several fiestas during the year. Various speakers from foreign countries talked to the group during the year. Club members also presented skits and one-act plays for the entertainment of the rest.

Mike Whitmore, President; Carole Benner, Vice President; Verna Maynard, Secretary; Pat Fisher, Treasurer; and Judy Hopkins, Song Leader, headed the club this year under the supervision of Mrs. Jennison, the Spanish instructor.

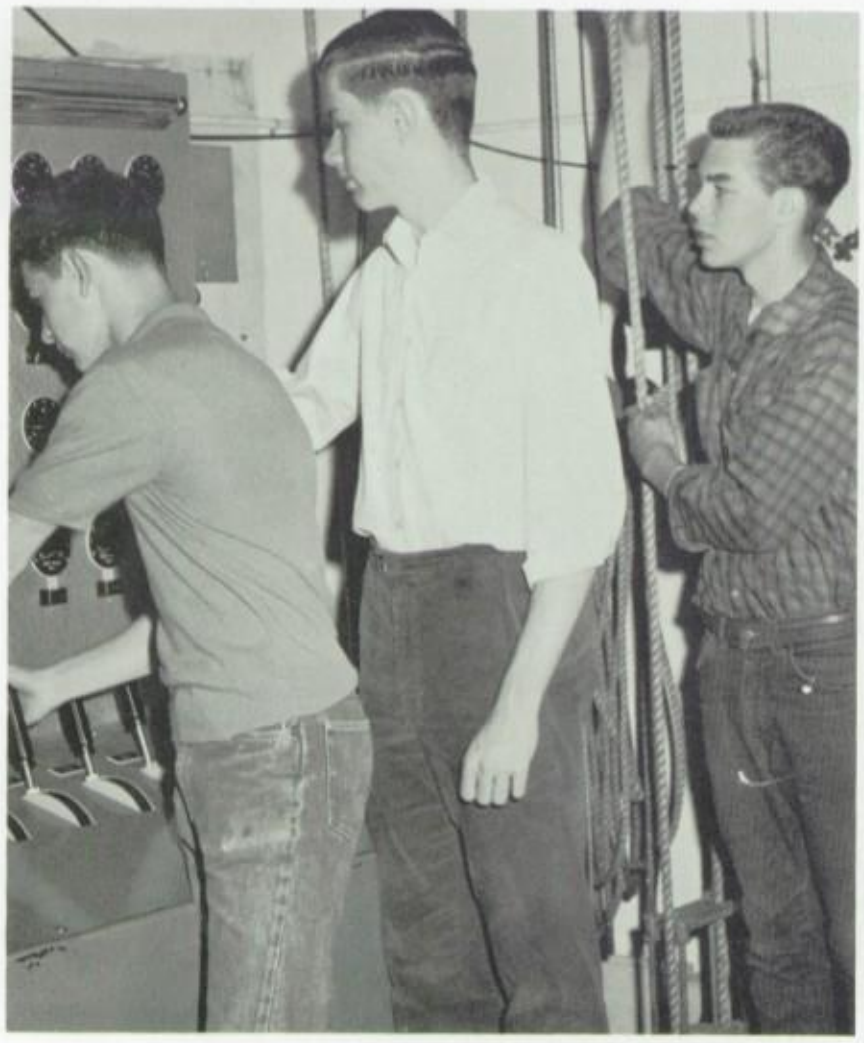
Behind the Velvet Curtain



Mike Davis, Don Palmer and Bill Johnson regulate the lights and curtain from behind the scenes.

Behind the scenes of all the shows put on at North Salem, a team of efficient boys plays a great part without the praise and spotlights. This is North Salem's Stagecraft Club.

They build the sets; regulate the lights, curtains; change the sets, and generally see that the show goes off well.

During the year they work on every show put on, putting in many hours of after school work to make it great.

Officers for this year were: Dwayne Watkins, President; LeRoy Willmschen, Vice-President; and Bob Willmschen, secretary.

ACTIVITIES

As Nature provides an avenue of divergence and break in its landscape, so does modern education with its cooling curriculum of Activities and many tributaries of relief.

Returning Viks Bid Welcome

Rally squad, with high hopes and a high mountain, greets students.

Lorina Baker, Viking maiden, pours out her thoughts in music.

Each year when the "recruits" return to Vikdom, the old salts put on a talent show to welcome all returning students. This year the revue was held on September 29, which did much to spur our Vikings on to a most profitable year!

'Jupopees,' Judy Guthrie, Bobby Noyes and Peggy Winters carry out the Viking theme vocally.

Happy ending: Russ Younger and Don Taylor—just strummin' and singin' again!

The Candid Camera Catches Students

Northmen receive letters of recognition at special assembly.

"Rally around the Vikings" has been the theme pretty much all year through. Although we had, sportswise, an average season, our rally and pep crew did much to keep things lively and active. We were, so to speak, a "hootin' and a hollerin' " for dear ole Vikland every time the athletic prowess was on the field, floor and mat. Our hearts were with the "boys" whenever they were with the team. We cramped ourselves into buses and caravaned our way to places of combat and fatigue. We yelled and screamed ourselves right out of voices which, we are sure, relieved some of our teachers.

"The Sound of Cheers

But by the middle of the week our voices and lungs were ready for another "go at it." We found wherever there is spirit, there is hope and happiness for success. Much of what we did in the rain and crowded gymnasium kind of carried through the week in better attitudes within the class. Or—it could have been because we were too tired to be a problem to anyone.

For all of us, the 1960-61 school year will go down as one filled with a balanced selection of sports and books!

King of the Cotton Picks

Pat Loy, who represented Garnet Knight Y-Teens, was chosen Viking King Cotton.

Denny Gregg, Steve Sipprell, and Bill Mickles completed the list of candidates.

The Sweetheart of 'Old North High'

Janet Sather, Jeanne Scales, and Sherri Filer, who represented Abel Gregg, Arthur Cotton, and T. C. Hicks Hi-Y Clubs, respectively, at the annual Sweetheart Formal, strike a royal pose for the camera.

The radiant 1961 Hi-Y Sweetheart from North Salem was Judy Vejlupek who represented Harrison Elliott Hi-Y.

Sweetheart Judy Vejlupek as she received her crown from Hi-Y Interclub Vice President, Denny Gregg, was surrounded by her court and their escorts.

Voices Sing International Language - Music

All right, but I'm still going to sing it my way!

The need of needing one another.

North is gaining yearly through the increased recognition of our choir. It is ever in demand at noon luncheons of business groups, and has even made tours to other schools, including participation in out of town civic events. Thanks, Mr. Miller, for continuing to enrich the name of North Salem!

The legislative and judicial arm of North is the Student Council. This group, through its elected Home Room representatives, works on all problems facing the student body. It is not alway easy to get a consensus of opinion in such a large group on issues facing the smooth running course of school but through the developed art of 'give and take', and by expert guidance from faculty advisers, the Student Council handles well those items of curriculum and extra curricular activities, touching upon the progress of all students throughout North Salem High.

The members of the Social Council have the task of planning parties and other school activities to make the school year more enjoyable. These representatives, one of whom is elected from each home-room, are also responsible for sending get-well cards, when the occasion arises, to members of their individual home-rooms.

Real Life Stilled

Always ready and waiting . . . ?

Excuse me while I scratch my ear.

Don't fight it, Dwain, it's bigger than both of you.

What if this stuff blows up?

Our photographers have the job of taking pictures for the Viking and Clarion. They also must develop the negatives and print them to the specifications of both the Viking and the Clarion staff members. The success of our annual depends on the cooperation of all the photographers. Shutter-Bugs were Larry Fischer, Bruce Ward, Dwain Watkins and Liz Anderson.

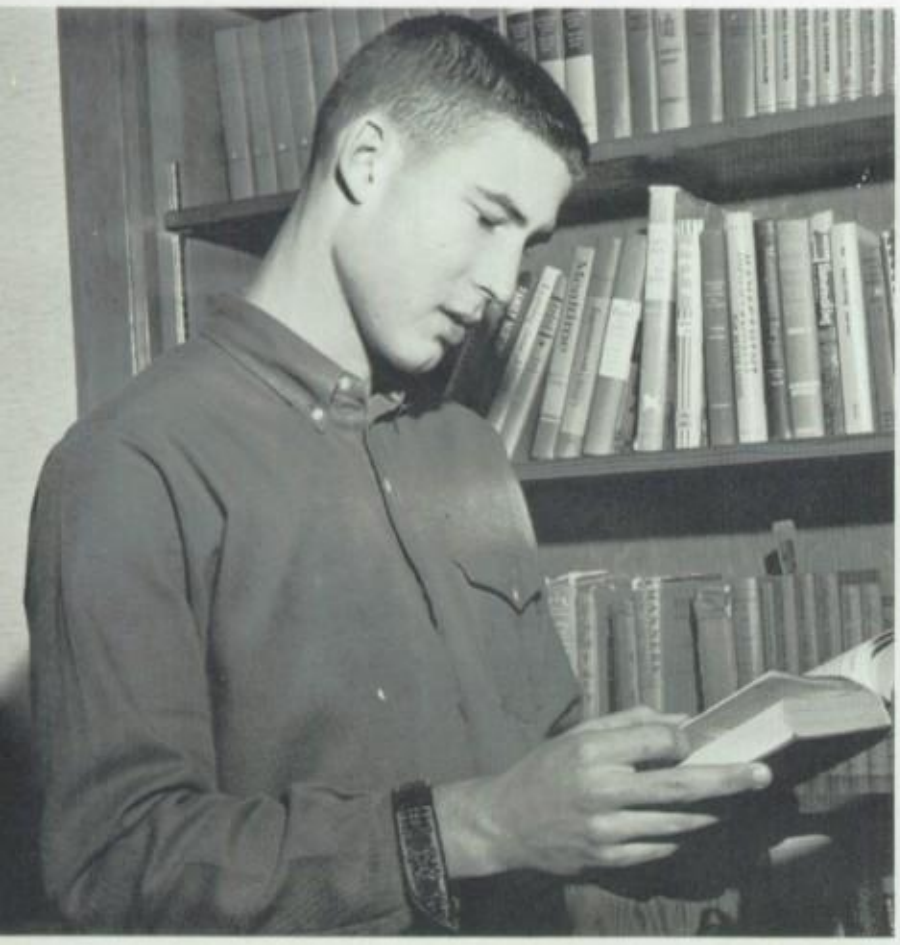
AFS Maps the Way to Travel

Love to travel? Dream of visiting far away places? Then the American Field Service is for you. It is opened to juniors who will be seniors after their summer sojourn into 'foreignlandia.' If you feel as if such a trip is impossible for you, then, you can always be the guest home for the foreign exchange student who comes to study at your school. Either way, you're bound to grow from your visit or association with those countries and people beyond the sea.

Don Taylor, exchange student from North, visited Finland this past summer. His European "home" was Tampere, Finland.

Under the auspices of the American Field Service, Lars Hyden, from Stockholm, Sweden, spent a year in the United States with the Doug Chambers family.

Student-Body Officers



Dave Chambers, Student Body President, was an active and ambitious worker for our school in his senior year at North.

One of the highest honors which can come to a high school student, is to be chosen as a student body officer and leader of your school. This thrill, this sacrificing of one's time and personal pleasure, to lead, befalls the student in his senior year. After his selection, he is elevated to a position of responsibility and leadership among his fellow students. For one school year, the ASB officers direct the flow of activity running through the school.

It is trying, time-consuming, and fun!

One of the finest experiences that you can achieve, underclassmen, is to have spent your sophomore and junior years working for a place on the leadership team.

Keep an eye to the future, and the future will have an eye on you!

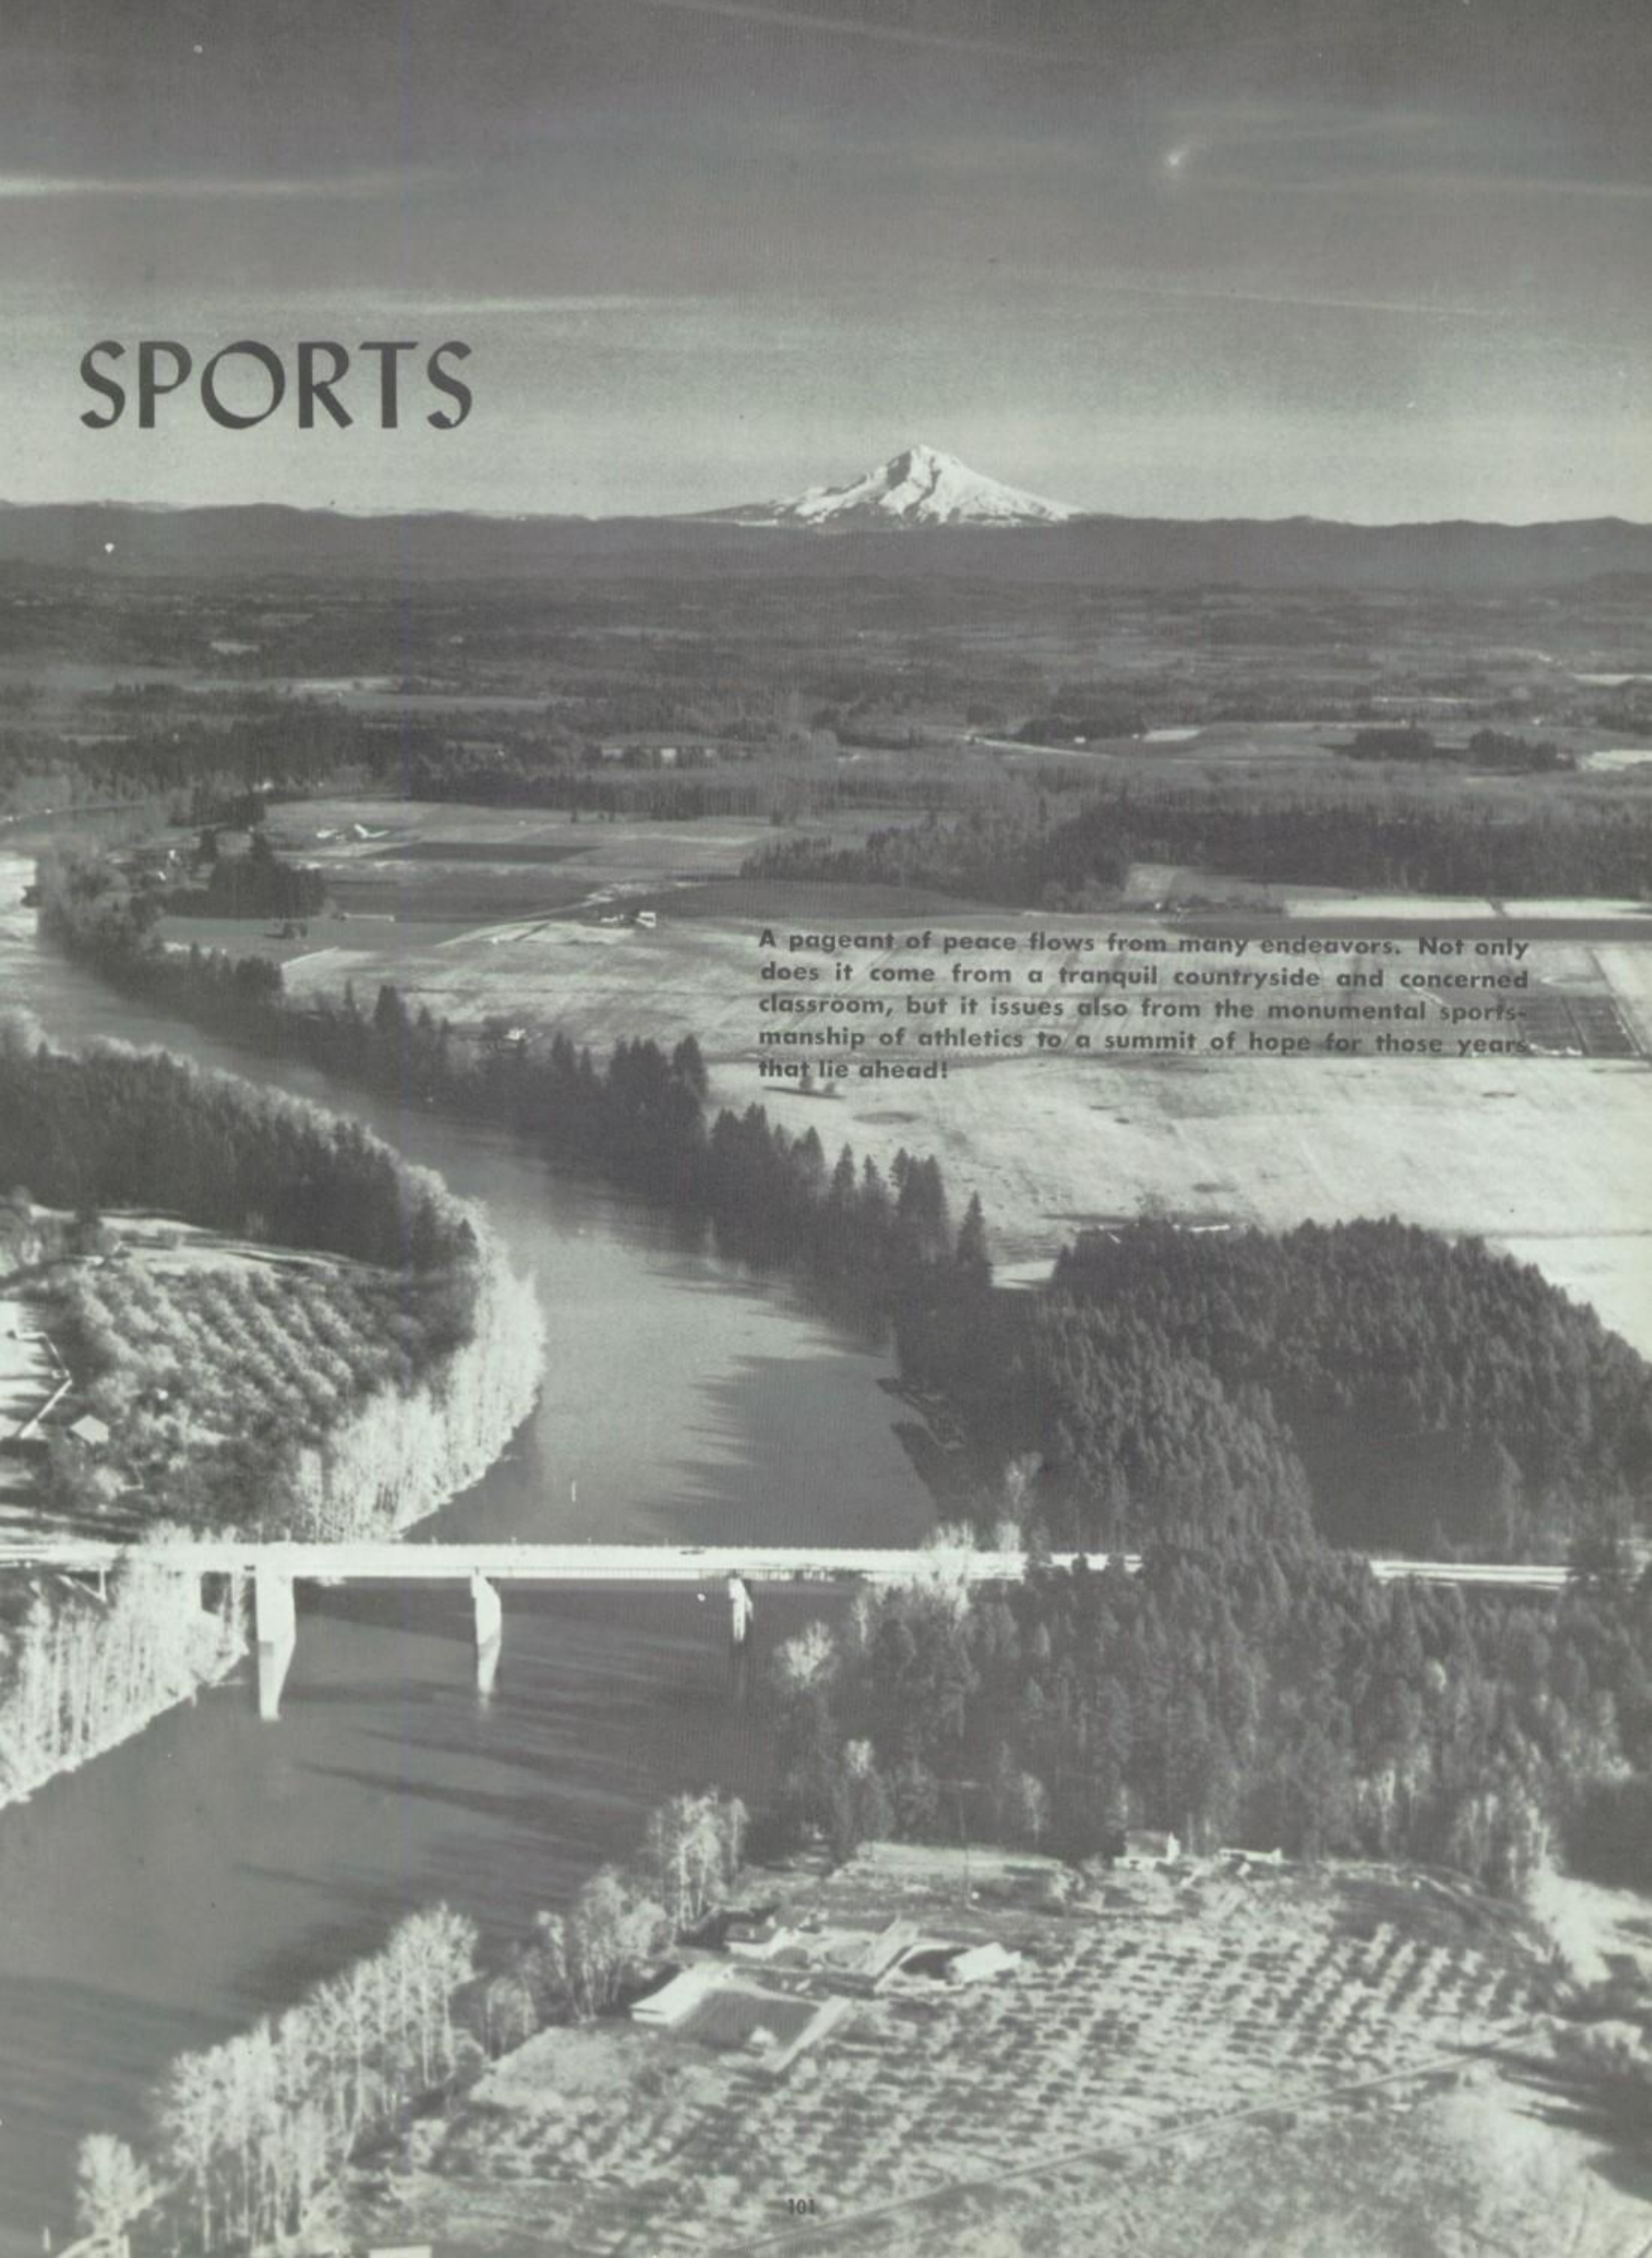
June Davis, Second Vice-President, worked hard but willingly on dances and student body affairs.

Janet Sather, Secretary, kept the minutes of student council meetings accurately and cheerfully.

Kathy Seely, First Vice-President, did a bang-up job of pleasing the Viks with our local talent.

Marlene Mallicoat, Treasurer, was responsible for the success of the United Fund Drive as well as other money matters.

SPORTS



A pageant of peace flows from many endeavors. Not only does it come from a tranquil countryside and concerned classroom, but it issues also from the monumental sportsmanship of athletics to a summit of hope for those years that lie ahead!

Captain, Pat Loy

Season's Highlights

Sophomore Reg Shires wrestles for the ball with South's Maerz during heated North-South game.

Dick Montgomery jumps high into the air for the tipoff. North players pictured are: Pat Loy, Jim Gettis, and Mike Lockerby.

'Whatcha' lookin' at, Punk?

This year's varsity basketball squad was composed of four seniors, five juniors, and four sophomores. Owing to a lack of experience, this team started slowly, but showed rapid improvement, so that the end of the season placed us as one of the better teams in the district.

The highlights of the season included wins over South Eugene, Corvallis, and South Salem. The team was paced by senior forward Pat Loy, one of North Salem's outstanding all-around athletes. Pat led the team in scoring and rebounding.

With such a young squad, it looks like a bright future for basketball at North Salem.

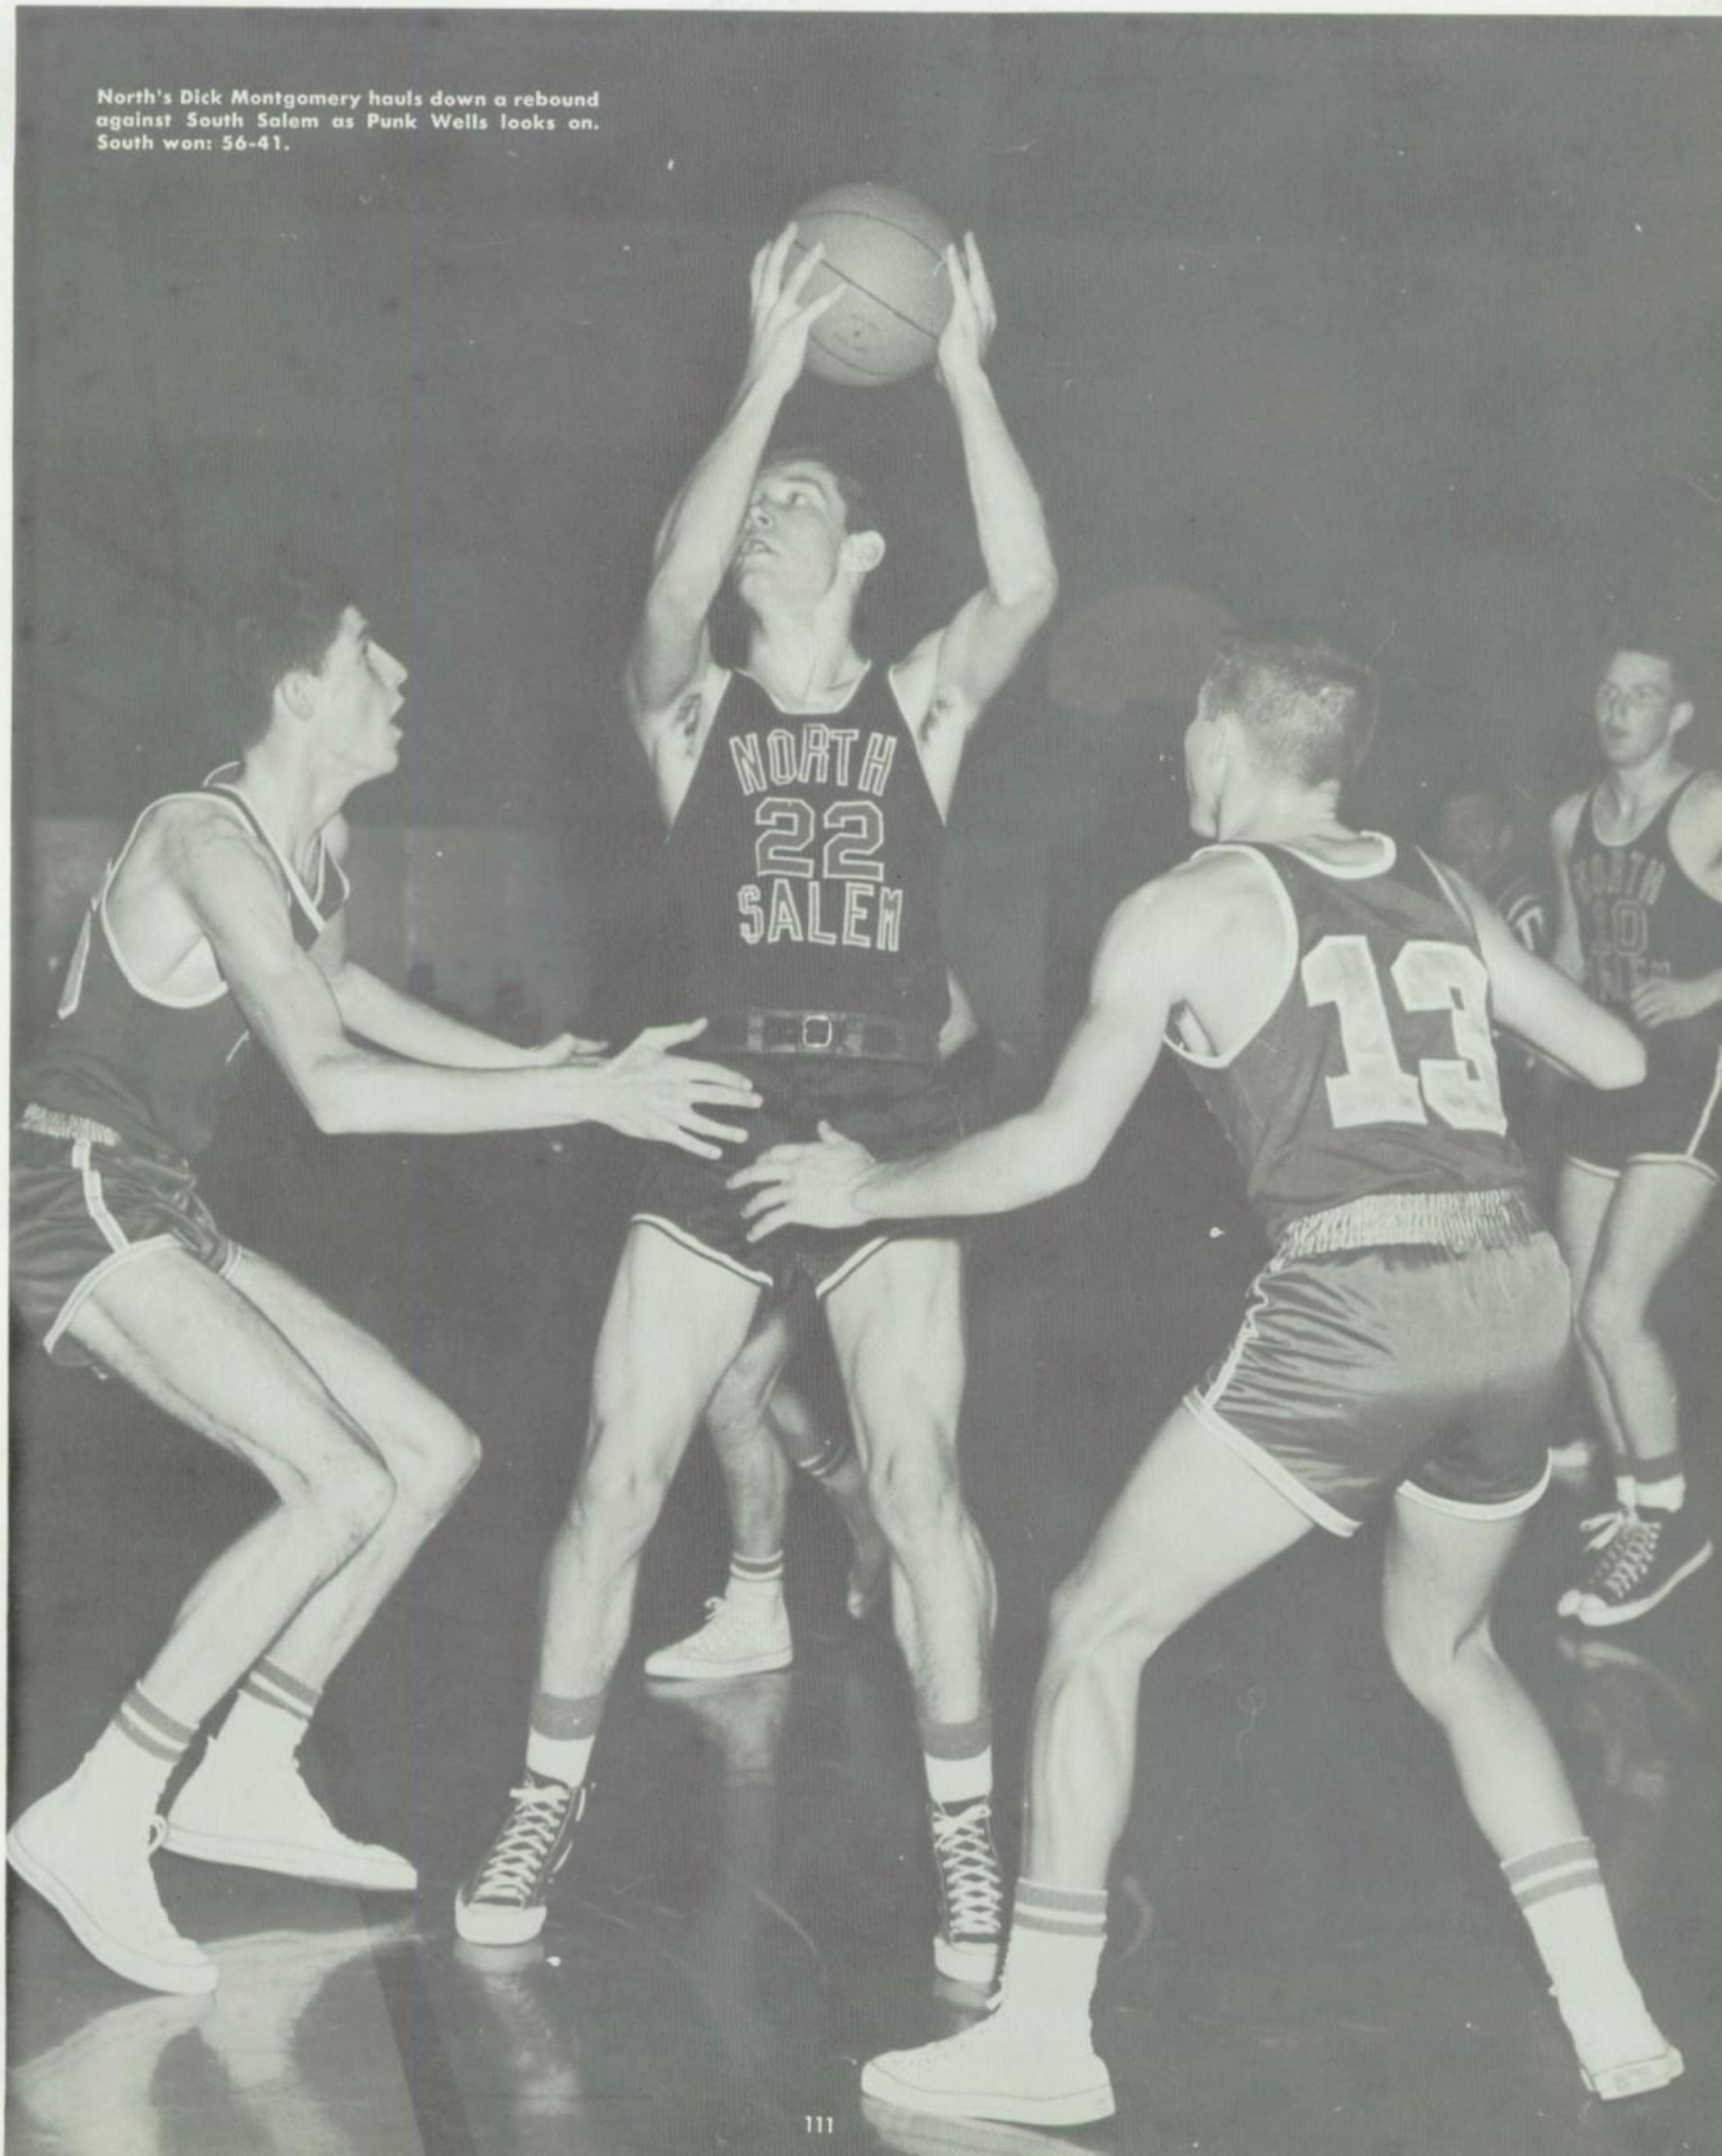
Dick Montgomery

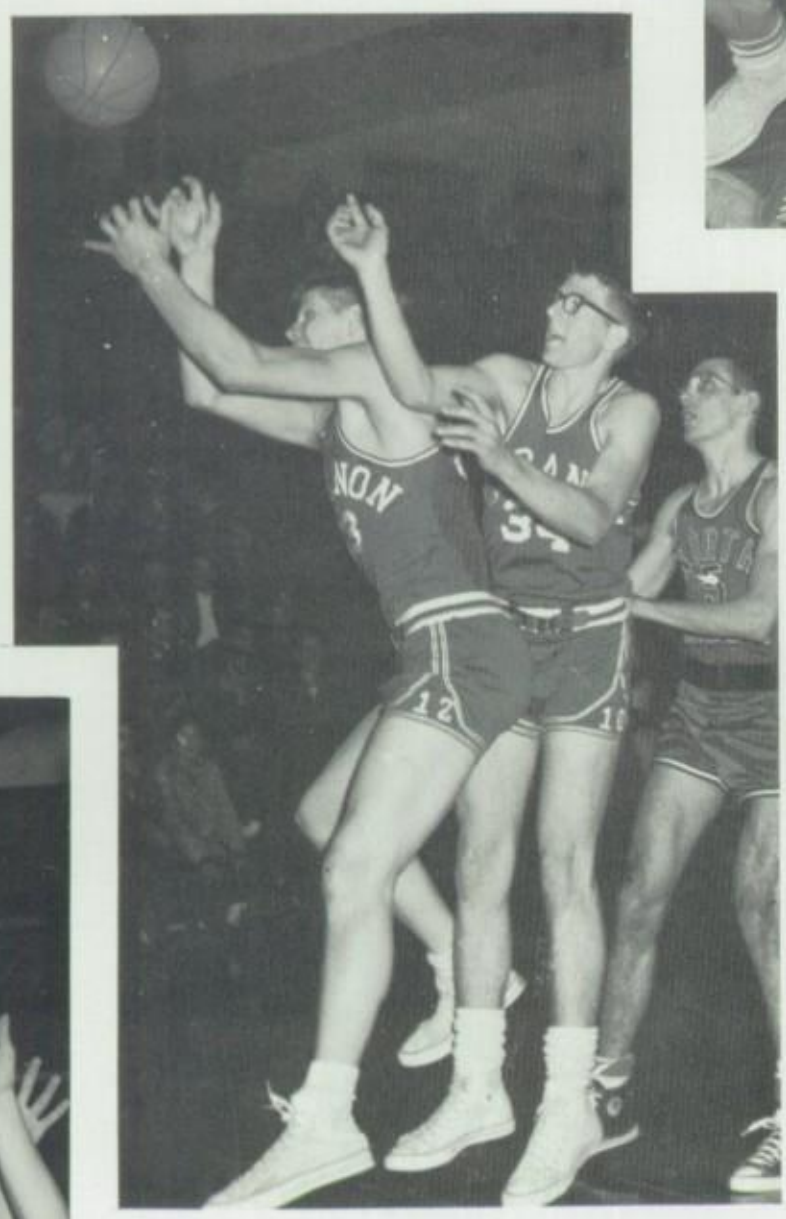


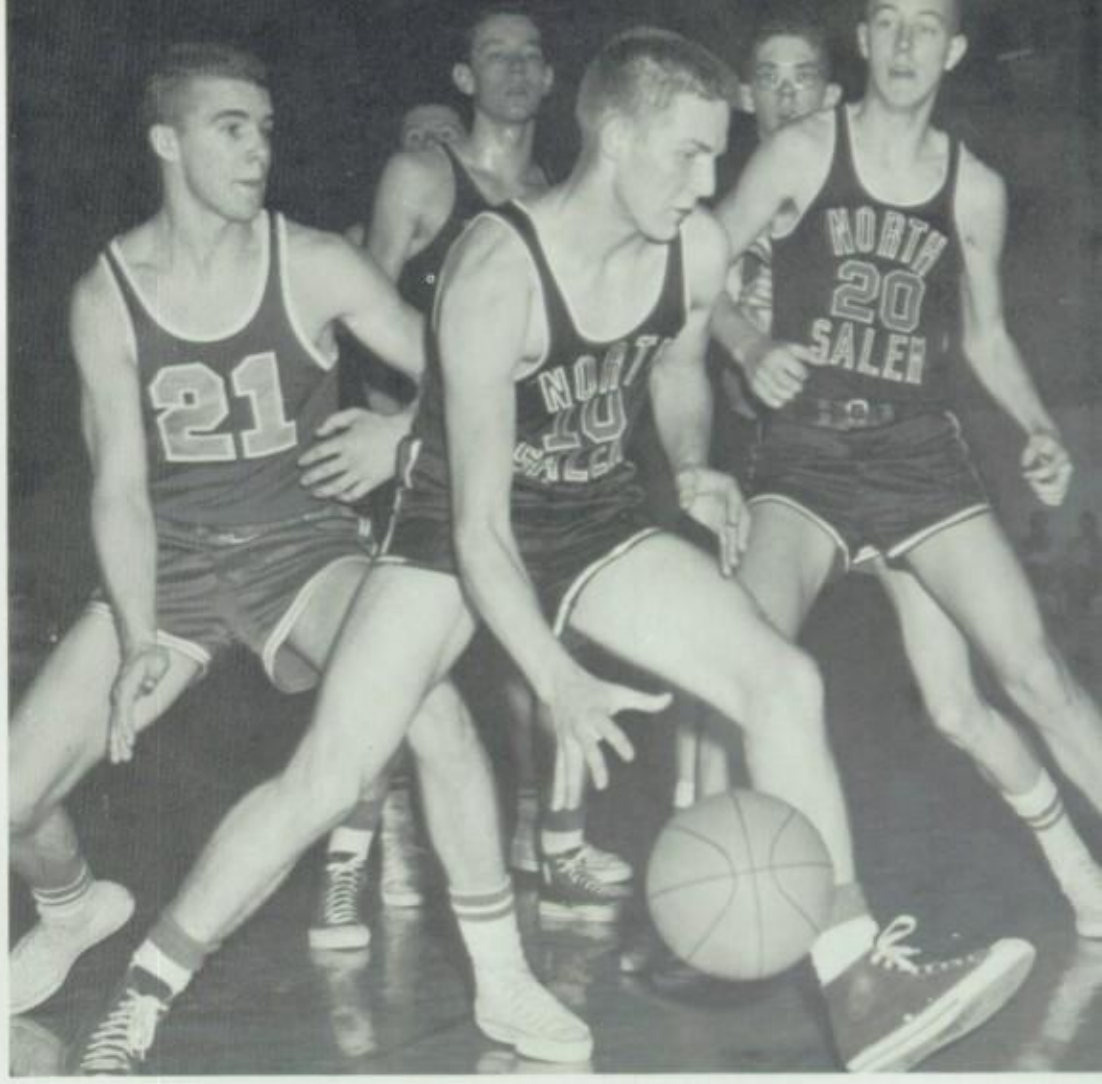
North's Dick Montgomery hauls down a rebound against South Salem as Punk Wells looks on. South won: 56-41.

Puzzle of Action

The heat of battle tells!

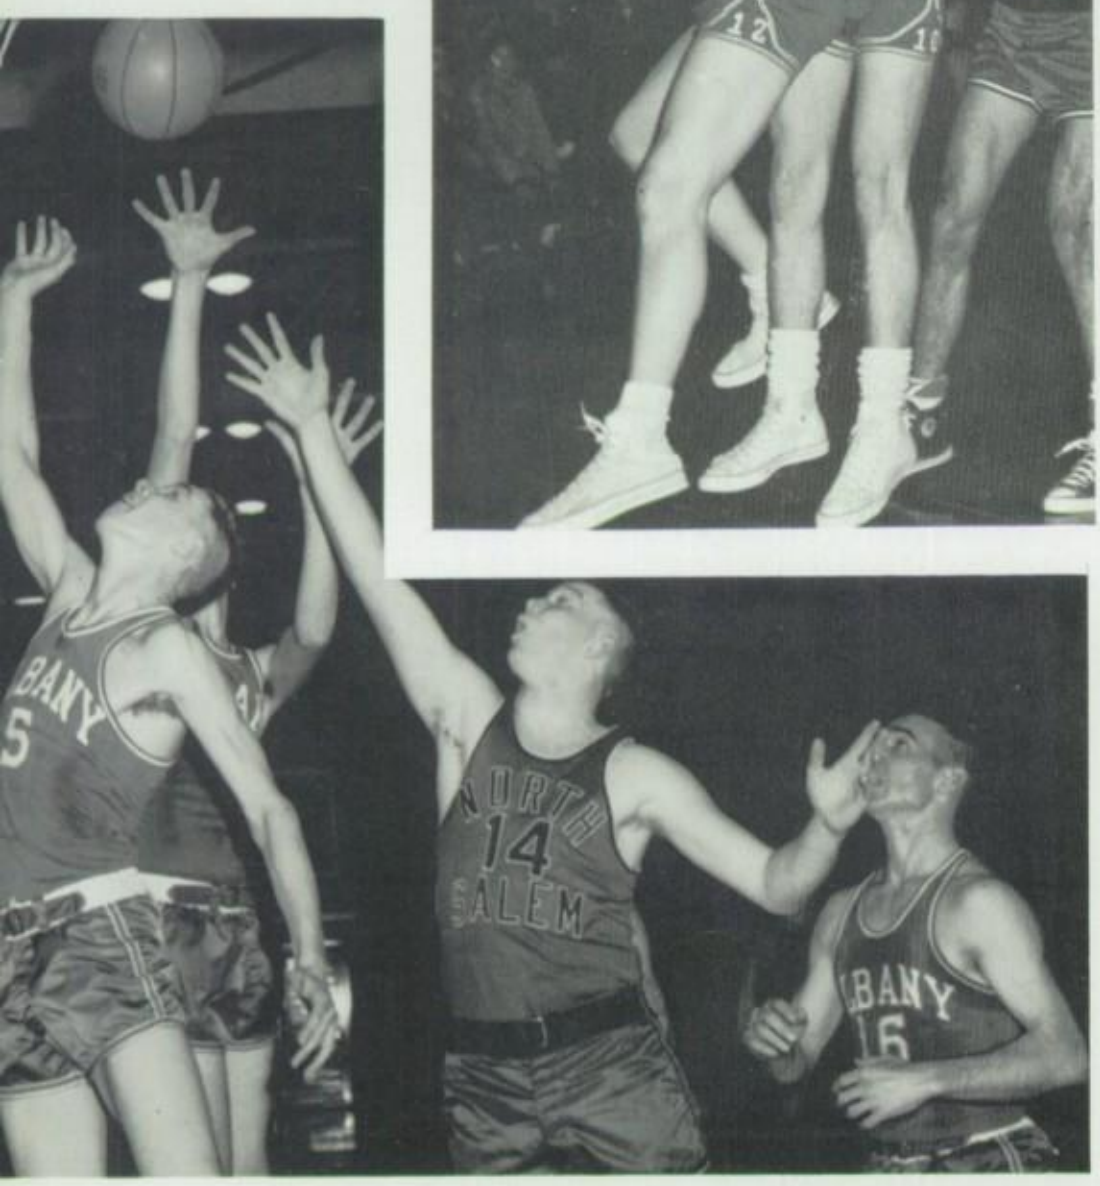
The old game of two on one.



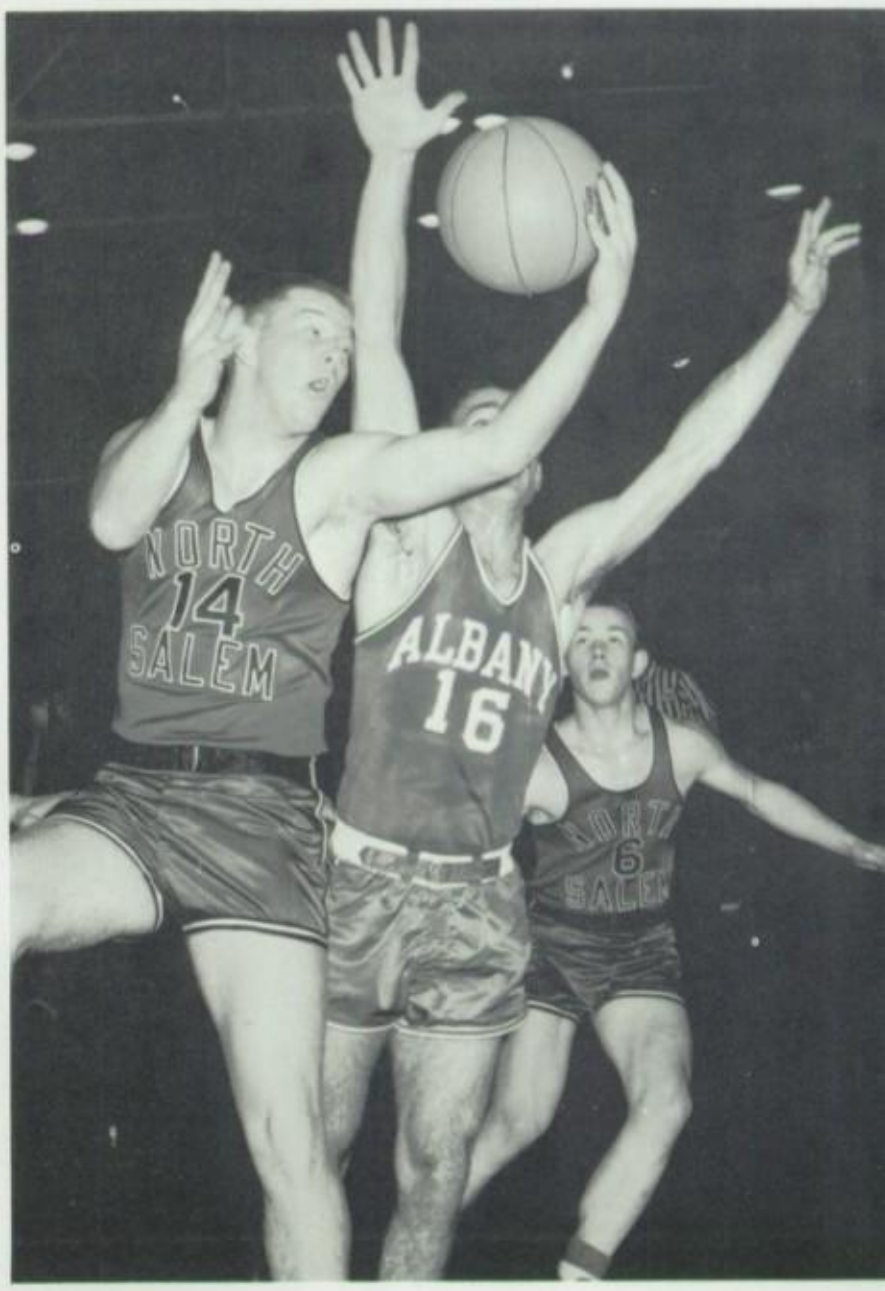


Jim Harter and Dick Montgomery watch as Reg Shires drives in for a basket.

Alan Wells out-rebounds Bulldog foe, as Jim Gettis brings up the rear.



"Just a little bit higher, Punk."



Varsity Cagers

JV Hoopsters

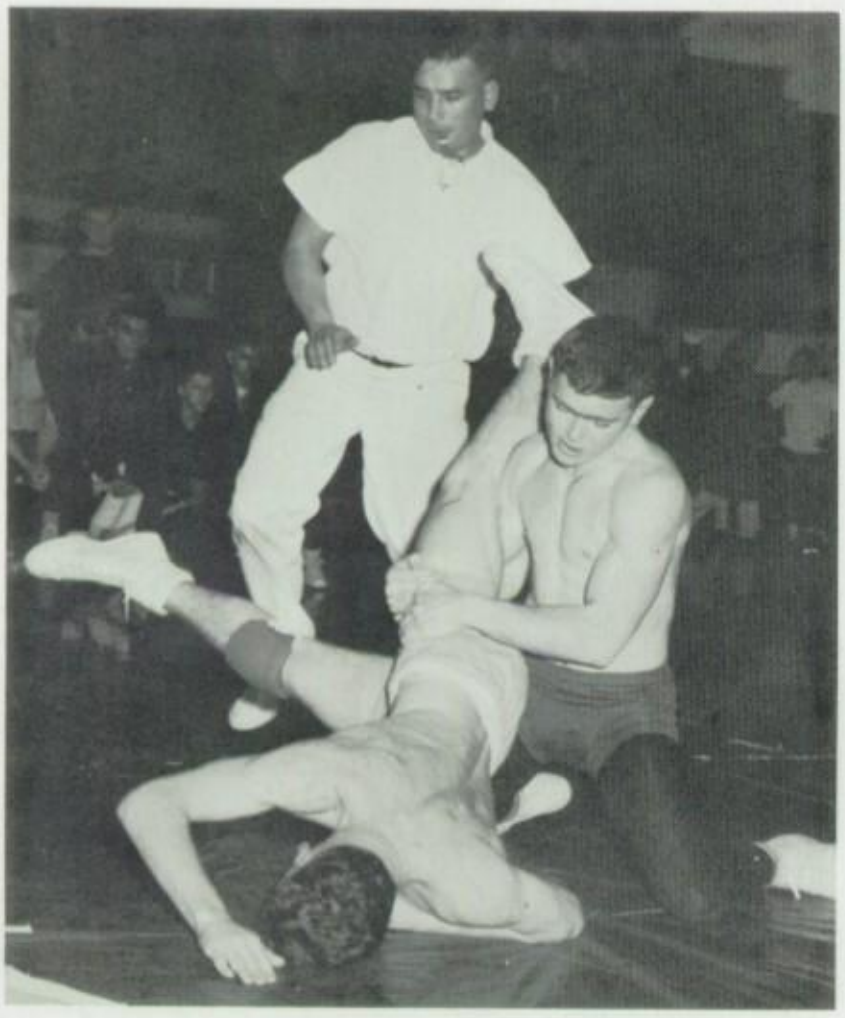
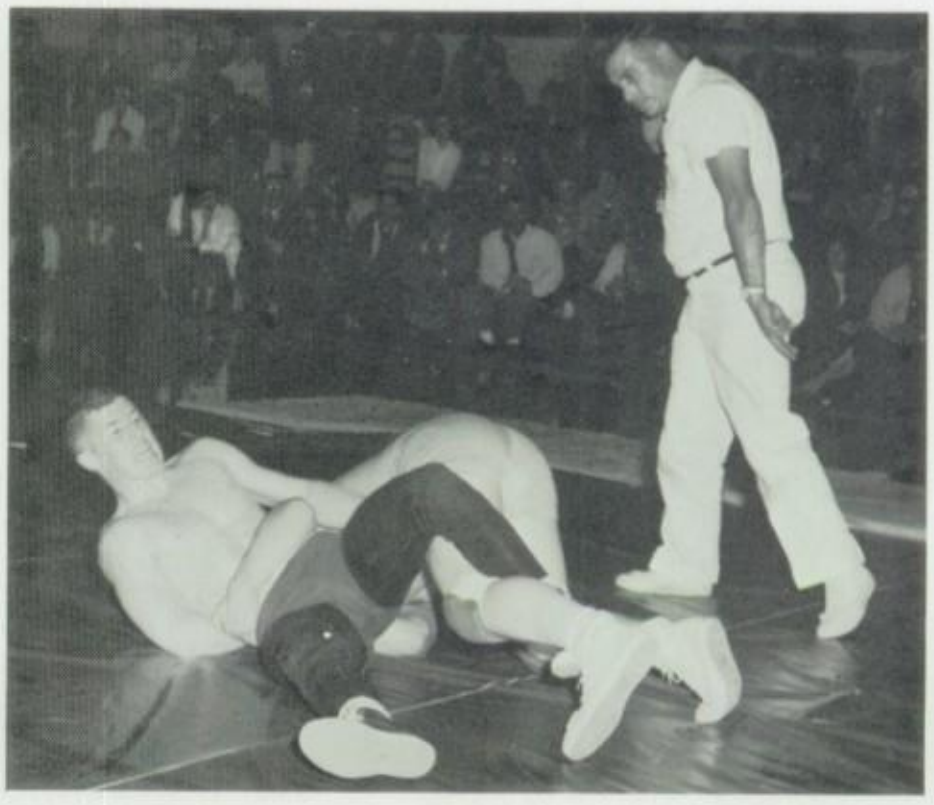
New Coach Leads Viking Matmen



State Champion, 'Buzz' Hays tries teaching opponent how to stand on his head.

Randy Hammer doesn't seem to appreciate his position during mat meet.



This year's wrestling team represented North Salem very outstandingly, and was bolstered by the return of State Champion 'Buzz' Hays and District Champions Maurice Morey and Larry Mahan. With their new coach, Mr. Bellock, North sent four men to the State Wrestling Meet, one being his own son, Tom, plus three previously mentioned teammates. This has been a good start at North Salem for Coach Bellock. Mr. Bellock took over for Herb Johnsrud, former mat mentor, who did much to build wrestling as a top sport here at North!

Spring Sports

Generally, a pose is maintained for some purpose which is not always apparent. The above stance was requested of our new and congenial baseball coach, Don Schaefer. Having contributed much to the development of abilities, "Ole 38" was most instrumental in bringing North's team to a first place tie with Albany.

It is with a great amount of satisfaction that we have Coach Schaefer usher in our spring sports for all of you loyal Viks. For a better look at our promising young coach, turn the page.

Co-District Champions

Second row: Coach Schafer, Jim Hunnex, Dave Lee, Jim Shires, Lynn Fairbrother, Punk Wells, Robb Haskins, Loren Whittaker, Jerry Freshour, Managers Reed English, Dennis White.

Junior pitcher, Tom Greif, displays the big league form that brought him a '7-2' record.

What would America be like without baseball? Surely, no sport has gained so much enthusiasm in foreign countries than our own national sport. Here at North there is not exception to the fire of spirit excited by the cry of "let's play ball."

We had more than an everage year under the mentorship of our new coach, Don Schaefer. North went on to win a first place tie in District Eight with Albany.

In a playoff game, North lost to Albany who went on to the state tournament. All things point to a really big year for the fellows in the striped flannel suit this coming year!

First year baseballman, Bob Lukasunis, promises to be one of next year's starters.

A Sign of Spring

"Doesn't look like you're going to make it, Don." Causey led the team in batting with an average of .400.

"Nice slide, Robb, but just a little short." Robb Haskins did a little better on his batting average with a .317.

Second baseman, Denny Gregg, is a two year letterman. Denny's batting average is .206.

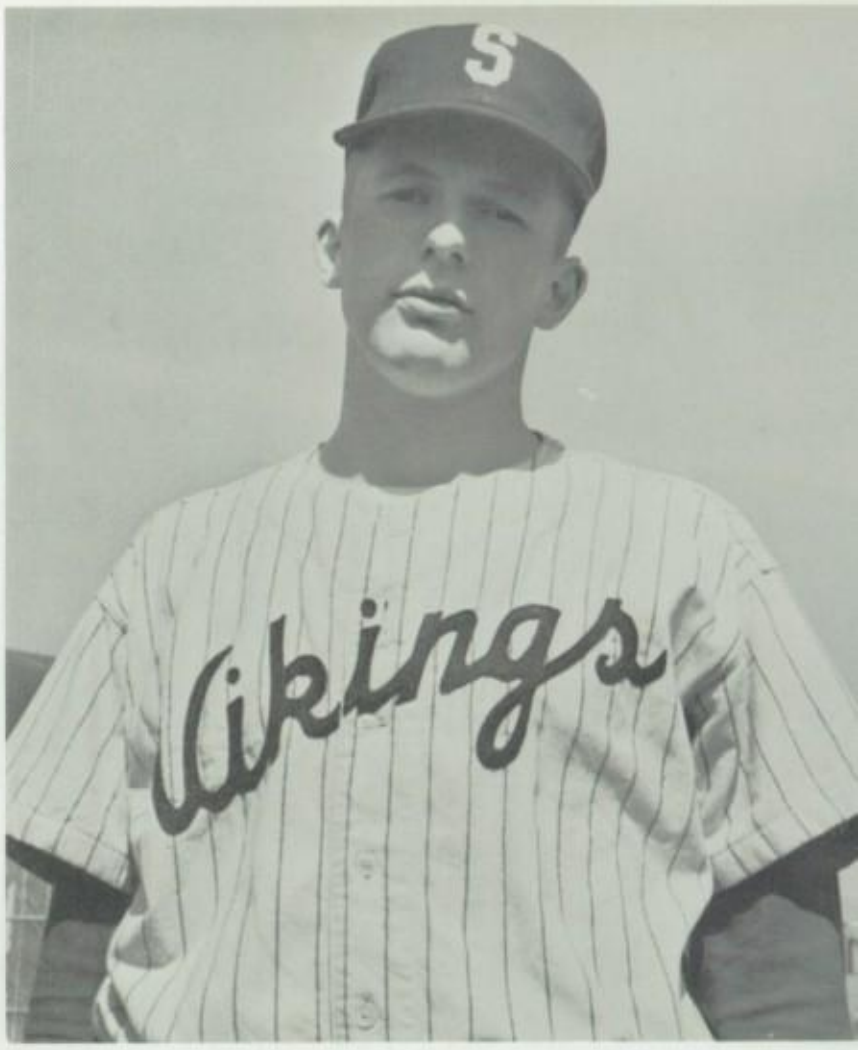
Catcher John Stiffler waits for arrival of ball impatiently. John hit .196.

More Baseball

Shown here is Senior Chris Hornschuch. He played shortstop and was the team's only three year letterman.



Pictured above is Sophomore Loren Whittaker. Loren had an outstanding pitching record of 6-2. He also hit .346!

JV Baseball

One of Our Finer Years

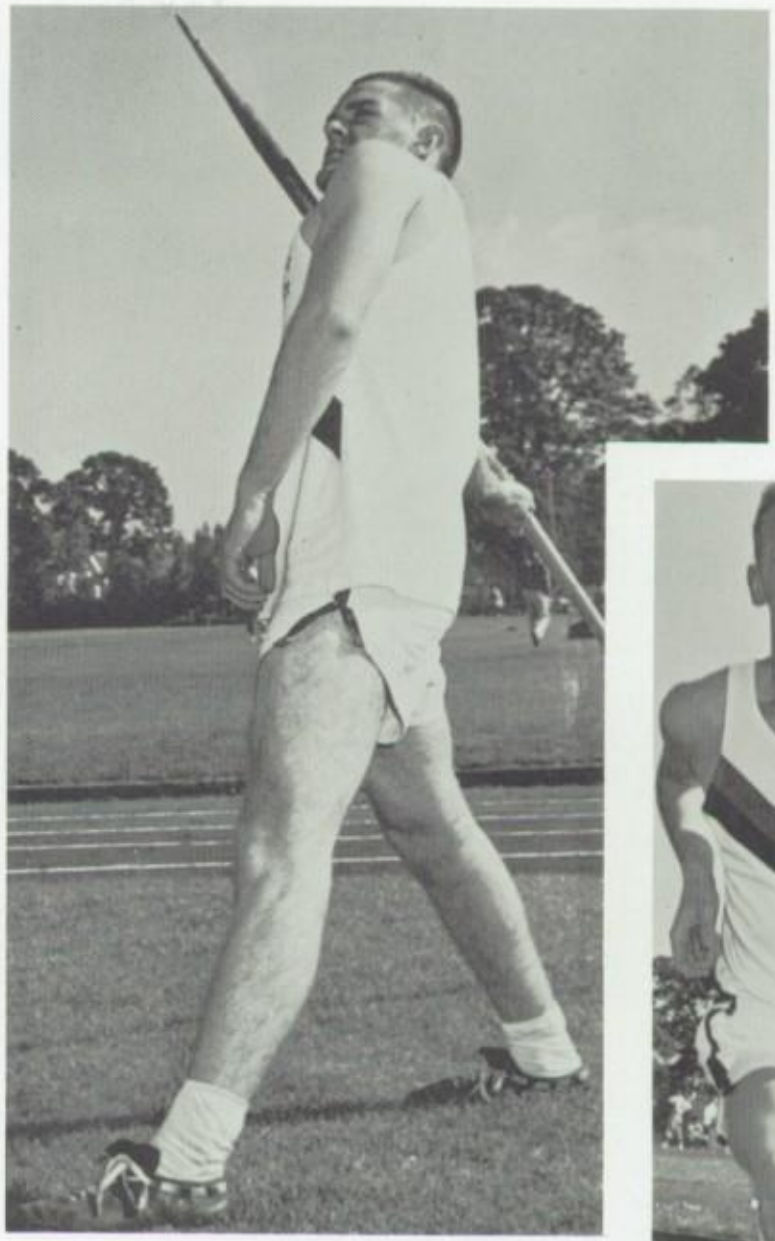
Warming up is Don Taylor, holder of the high hurdle record—time: 15.1.



Spear-man, Vern Smith, broke the javelin record with a toss of 195 feet, 6 inches.

Transfer sprinter, Neil Tucker, holder of three school records: 100 yd. dash, 9.9; 220, 21.5; and 440, 49.1.

As always, Coach Herb Johnsrud turns out a fine track team. However, this was really a bonus year for the coach. In an unofficial meet, Neil Tucker was clocked at 49.1 for the 440. There are high hopes for this fine young man. Not only did Coach Johnsrud turn out an unexpected surprise in Tucker, but he did an excellent job in getting his entire track squad to do their very best. Another example of excelling was Gary Hammet with the discus.

Yes, indeed, we are fortunate to have the inspirational guidance of Coach Johnsrud here at North. With such guidance, we all anticipate a fine turnout for track next year.

Viks 'Spike It Up'

Ron Conley, the barefooted high jumper, made it!

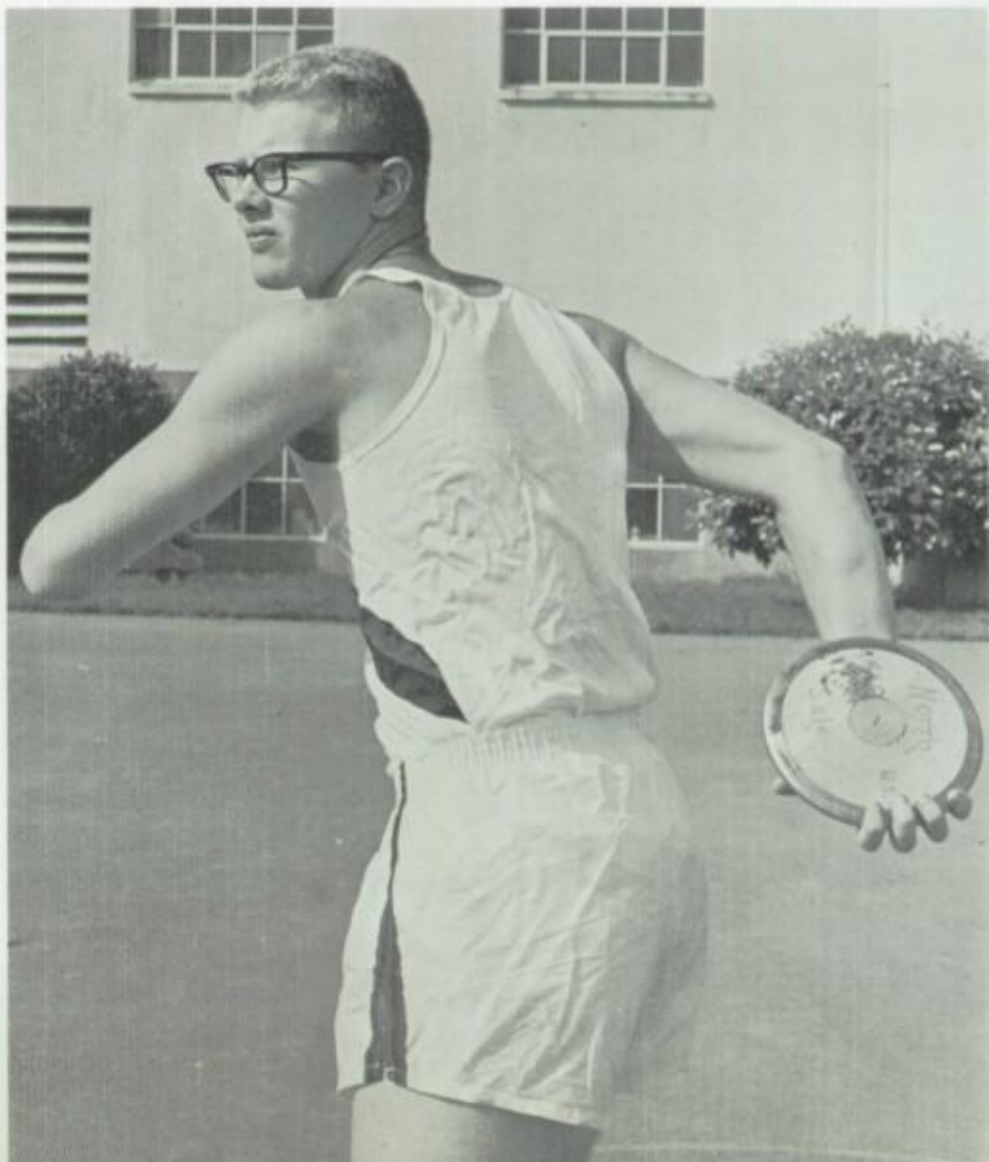
Steve Chambers, far right, sprints to a new school record in the low hurdles.

The 880 and 440 relay team composed of Neil Tucker, Bill Hill, Art Higashi, and Kent Evans broke both existing records. 880—time: 1:30; 440—time: 44.5.

Senior, Louie Davies, goes up and over in the pole vault.

Harley Sundet tries a little of the same, but doesn't quite make it.

Senior Gary Hammet practices for the state meet where he placed fifth.



Court Racketeers

Coach Myers and the Albany coach look on as North tangles with the Bulldogs.

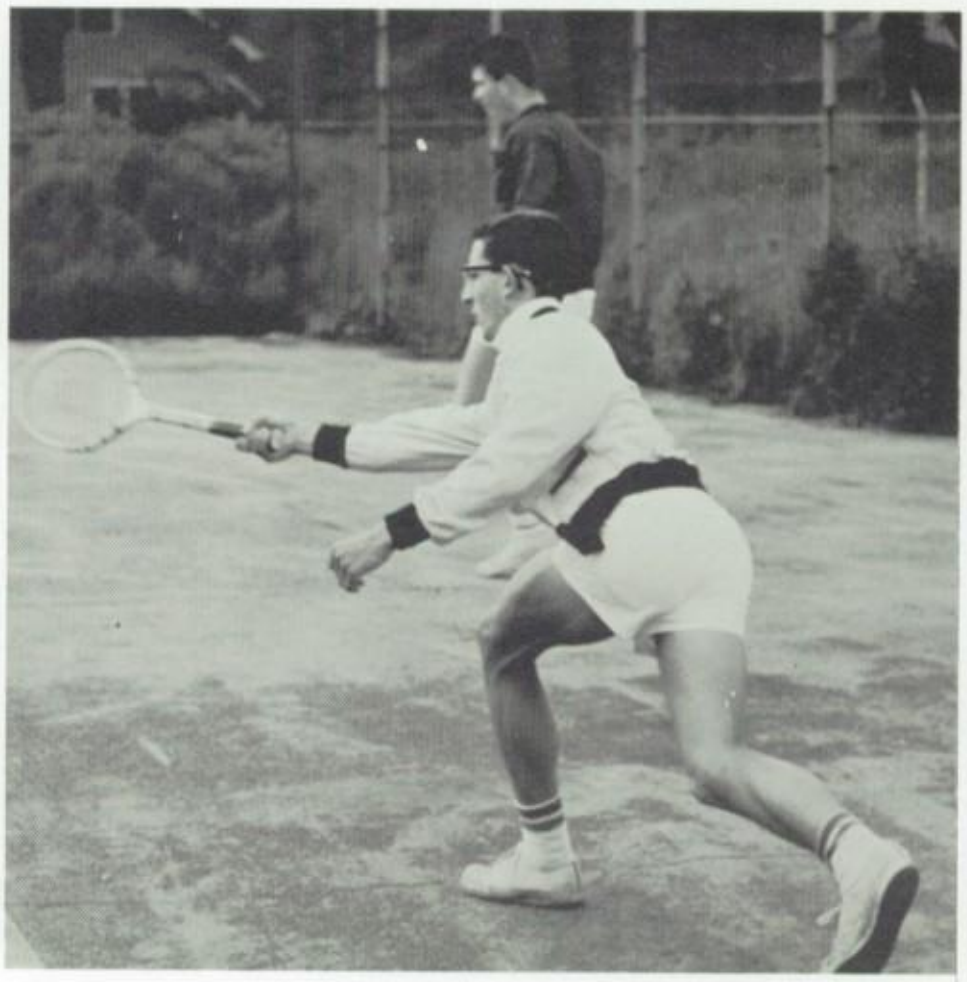
Second in District
Fifth in State

Sophomore Dave Shuford displays the skill that has brought him through an undefeated season and into the state tournament.

Senior, Mike Epstein finishes his last year at North with an outstanding record.



Divot Diggers

The Viking golf squad: Coach Thompson, Cliff Ellis, Mike Whitmore, Pete Danner, Thure Lindstrom, and Larry Bevens.

This year's golf team led by Cliff Ellis, Mike Whitmore, and Thure Lindstrom went through a fine season compiling an 8-4-1 record. According to Coach Thompson, the squad was small, but hard working. The coach praised their industry, but hopes for a larger turnout next spring.

Golf is a difficult sport to learn and to master. The golf team deserves much credit for their hard work. Mr. Thompson also deserves credit for the time and effort given to help the boys improve their game.

Senior, Mike Whitmore finished his last year at North with an all-around ability and a fine record.

Pictured at the right, another senior, Thure Lindstrom, finished low point man and placed North in the state meet.

Seniors share the darkness and anxieties of the troubled time before the dawn of new horizons.

SENIORS

Senior Examples

Gracia Grendal, First Vice-President, directed an unusual musical talent show of which our seniors can well be proud.

Class Advisers

Vivian Carr, Chairman

Margaret Sims

Bruce Thompson

Senior Treasurer, Nancy Ebert, was caught auditing the books in an attempt to embezzle the nonexistent senior funds.

Dave White, Senior Class President, in reality academically serious, pauses in one of his lighter moods to enjoy a good book.

With this we come to the close of our senior portraits. We wish all of you the best of good fortune that comes from the guise of Fate and Lady Luck. May Dame Fortune and the Countenence of God shine upon your endeavors. We hope that the largest portion of you find those tasks rewarding which assist others as you have been assisted.

With this angel-like view of Salem we conclude this complementary visual-logue to our senior section and wonderful city.

It is hoped that each will continue to compliment the other and that those found within these pages will strive to make popular this "Peace In The Vally" a world-known All-American city!

Girl of the Year:
Carolyn Stadter

The coveted title of Girl of the Year went to Carolyn Stadter. This friendly, vivacious brunette was selected from a field of nine girls who were chosen as Girls of the Month. A flip of the page will reveal her honored 'runners-up' pictured with their male counterparts, the respective Rotarians.

Carolyn was selected by a vote from North Salem's Vikettes to receive the treasured Girl's League bracelet.

Congratulations to you, Carolyn!

Seniors Say, "Farewell"

Mr. Carelton addresses the student body and presents the accolades during the senior assembly held on Friday, the 26 of May.

As the senior file in, nearly all are solemn for a solemn hour.

Mr. Hanauska, Dean of Boys, notifies John Ashton of his scholarship to the University of Portland.

"I told you I'd make it!"

Dave White, senior class prexy, emceed the farewell assembly.

Elaine Standish receives an Athleta Award while Keith Weathers looks on.

Dave disapproves of 'soph's desire to exit.

Sunday's Solemnity: Baccalaureate

Reverend Poling gave a most stirring message to the 1961 class during the Baccalaureate services held at North on May 28, 1961. Reverend Poling's talk, "Ad Astra," was timely for our star-gazing grads. It is moments such as these which become frequent 'reveried' memories.

Commencement

Student Body President, Dave Chambers, gave one of the two commencement addresses. His talk, "The Great Aim of Education Is Not Knowledge, but Action," was well received.

Larry Oglesby receives his disploma from Charles Schmidt, Superintendent of our schools in Salem, the All-American City!

June Davis, ASB First Vice-President, spoke on "Victory or Defeat." May it be victory for you all!

Barbara Stutzman is all smiles as she touches that long awaited goal. School Board official, Stanley Hammer, presents the prized diploma.

Senior photos and club pictures arranged through Meier and Frank Studios. Thanks to Mrs. Nachtergale, studio director, and a special thank you to Joe Tompkins, activity director.

Published by the R. Wallace Pischel Publishing Company, through the able assistance of Sam Fort, representative.

Special thanks to Mr. Roloff and Mr. Beer for their assistance, and to the rest of the co-operative faculty and administration of North Salem for making this book possible.
